ARSSM

- You will be able to attend all the events that we organize within our continuous vocational training programme: courses, workshops, seminars, conferences free of charge or benefiting of discount.

Continuous vocational training makes the difference. We give you this chance through all the events organized on a regular basis.

- You will be able to benefit from our good practices guides that address a wide range of topics in OSH field (noise, vibrations, risk prevention of occupational risks in construction field).
- You can get the latest software for risk assessment, environmental impact analysis, methodologies for calculating the cost of work-related accidents and occupational diseases.
- Through our subsidiaries and our members, we will connect you with professionals in OSH field, with whom you can exchange experience, good practices and information.
- You could network on our online forum with OSH professionals in Romania. You would be able to ask questions, share opinions or debate on a specific topic. And if you attend a course in order to obtain an OSH qualification you can rely on our support.

- You will be updated with the latest national and European regulations, standards. ARSSM is a full member of ENSHPO – European Network of Safety and Health Professional Associations and partner with IOSH – Institution of Occupational Safety and Health in UK and collaborates with EU_OSH Focal Point in Bucharest.

- You will be informed about all the events in the field of OSH that are being organized at European level, where we can facilitate the participation.

For just 150 lei per month – we are waiting you to join our community!

ARSSM is an organisation that through all the activities carried on in the field of occupational health and safety, demonstrates the qualities of a reliable, loyal and potential partner both for governmental factors and social partners – employees and employers

We advocate for healthy and safety workplaces and decent working conditions- a successful business relies on healthy employees. ARSSM was founded in 2005 as a non-governmental non-profit organisation.
